5 missing assignments and/or 8 behavior marks in one week constitutes a Saturday School.

The following are a few, but not all of the ways a student can earn a behavior detention:

* Any behavior detention/study hall card lost by a student will require the student to pay a $5.00 fine and the behavior detention card will be marked.

* Any student who does not show up for detention or study hall and does not have an acceptable excuse that day, will serve an additional 1 hr. behavior detention the following night.

* Any student not following directions, rules or procedures of the classroom/school (including not having proper supplies for class, incomplete work and illegible work) will be given a behavior detention check mark.

* Any test or quiz or assignment that requires a signature that is not signed and returned the next day will be regarded as a behavior infraction and a check will be issued everyday that each test, quiz, or assignment is not signed.

* Any behavior check that results in detention received after 2:30 p.m. will require the student to stay the following afternoon for Study Hall/Detention.
